

BY THE LORDS JUSTICES
General and General Governors
OF IRELAND,
A PROCLAMATION.

Winchester, Gallway.

I His Most Excellent Majesty having for divers weighty Reasons thought fit to signify His Royal Pleasure unto Us, That the Parliament of this Kingdom now prorogued unto the Seaventh Day of June instant, be by Us further continued by Prorogation from that Day until the Fifth Day of July next. We do hereby Publish and Declare, That the said Parliament be, And it is hereby prorogued accordingly until the said Fifth Day of July next; whereof We give this notice, to the end that the Members of either House of Parliament, may not think themselves obliged to attend upon the said Seaventh Day of June instant.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Second Day of June 1698. In the Tenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

By their Excellencies Command.
H. May.

God Save the King.
